Natural Style Chicken

Natural Style Chicken has been a favorite hometown eatery in Point Loma since 1979, and now they are opening another spot in Hillcrest on Friday, December 21st. Taking over the former Tokyo Ramen space on the corner of Fifth and University, Natural Style Chicken is sure to be a hit with neighborhood locals and visitors. The growing desire for barbecued specialties such as their fresh rotisserie chicken, ribs and beef and customers' favorite Teriyaki Chicken will put Hillcrest on the map as a top BBQ dining destination.

"We anticipate great success at our new location and are so excited to become a part of the Hillcrest community," says Inho Choi owner of Natural Style Chicken.

Everything is made on-site and served fresh, including their hearty side dishes such as Macaroni Salad, Onion Rings, Refried Beans and Potato Salad. They also serve Chicken Egg Rolls, Kyoza, Taquitos and Homemade Soup to accompany their off-the-charts house-made rotisserie chicken and ribs. Chicken, turkey or duck can also be pre-ordered for parties and family dinners to go.

The vibe is casual with counter service and reasonable prices for on-the-go dining. An outdoor patio will give customers a fresh-air option – and wine and beer will be available. Natural Style Chicken's flavors are bold, their servings are generous, and their goal is to be your go-to destination for simple food done well.
